Attending

2016-2017 Chair Dan Berube (SL County), 2017-2018 Chair Leslie Schow (SL County), Linda Gee (SL County), Cherie Willis (Salt Lake City), Nia Thimakis (SL County), Joseph Anderson (Logan), Marissa Bischoff (BYU), Mary Chapman (BYU), Jason Cornelius (Logan), Hollie Dabb (Logan), Jessica Green (BYU), Erin Hawkins (BYU), Jill Mallek (SUU), David Shaw (Stevens Henager College), and 2016-2017 Secretary Adrea Lund (Grand County).

The meeting was called to order. Dan Berube reviewed RASRT's accomplishments over the last year and introduced Leslie Schow the 2017-2018 Chair. Members thanked Dan for his service as Chair. RASRT usually has four to five meetings per year and in the past has hosted special events including socials, in-person workshops, and online webinars. Leslie stated that she is interested in suggestions from members for future special events.

Members discussed past experiments with incorporating video conferencing into RASRT meetings with inconsistent success. Member discussed whether ULA could purchase a video conferencing platform and make it available to all the round tables. Members discussed Adobe Connect and Zoom. The next RASRT meeting will offer the option to join by telephone conference.

The minutes from the March 16, 2017 meeting were passed out and unanimously approved. Dan informed the members that Nia Thimakis has offered to serve as RASRT's 2017-2018 Secretary. Cherie Willis made a motion to appoint Nia as secretary. Jason Cornelius seconded the motion and it passed unanimously.

Leslie stated that she will contact members by email to schedule the next meeting. Leslie encouraged everyone to login to Memberclicks and make sure they are signed up to receive communications from RASRT.
