Continuing Education
From Connie Lamb
As of the conference, I am no longer a co-chair for the CE Committee. Valerie Buck will continue as a co-chair and Erin Morris (SLCPL) has replaced me. I will remain on the committee and will be somewhat involved in the 2017 fall workshop since I have already made the arrangements. It will be September 29 at Park City Public Library.
Copyright Education

From Allyson Mower

Charge
The ULA Copyright Education Committee discusses, explores, and educates ULA members on the full range of copyright and helps create a consistent understanding of the core rights that make up copyright along with the range of exceptions as they relate to libraries, readers, teachers, and learners.

Approved by the Board on June 3, 2016. First committee meeting held August 1, 2016 to develop guidelines, goals, and objectives as stipulated in ULA bylaws. Second meeting held October 13, 2016 to select vice-chair, draft conference proposals, and assign web content.

Guidelines
- The committee consists of a chair appointed by the ULA president and a vice-chair selected by the committee from a library type different than the chair’s. The committee consists of up to ten members from as many types of Utah libraries as possible (public, special, academic).
- The committee maintains the Copyright Resources page on ULA’s website
- The committee strives to offer at least one educational event every year either at the Annual Conference, Fall Seminar, or as a standalone program.

Expenditures for 2016-2017
$462.10
$132.55 (Working lunch for in-person committee meeting)
$329.55 (10 copies for book giveaway of “The Librarian’s Copyright Companion, 2nd Edition” at Annual Conference)

Achievements for 2016-2017
1. Populated a committee and Copyright Resources page on ULA’s website
2. Built the membership to include librarians from Public and Special libraries
3. Submitted two session proposals (only one was selected)
4. Organized one session & book giveaway at the Annual Conference with ~60 attendees
5. Held a business meeting and added new member Ian King (Independence University) to replace former member Susie Quartey (BYU)

Goals & Objectives for 2017-2018
1. Submit pre-conference proposal on re-use policy, permission letters/agreements, and fair use analyses
2. Determine if Fall Workshop space is available

Outreach & Community Engagement
From Liesl Seborg
Chair of Committee: Liesl Seborg
I. Membership.
   a. Membership is still a concern. There are only 8 members according to Memberclicks. As mentioned before, when the Rural & Small Libraries Committee was created all of the Outreach Committee’s membership was transferred to that list. From the 0 people left after that incident we have regained membership but have not gathered back the original 20+ members. A specific request was made to the Rural and Small Libraries group several months ago to check affiliations and rejoin the outreach committee if they had been dropped from the list.
   b. The committee no longer has the requisite membership to be transitioned to a roundtable.

II. ULA Conference
   a. The Outreach Committee chair assisted the Rural and Small Libraries Committee co-chairs, Laurie Hansen and Shawn Bliss, with the “How Small is It” presentation. The materials for this session have been shared with Jessica Breiman for posting with other conference materials.
   b. The Outreach Committee Chair also presented with Nyssa Fleig and Telesa Nicholes on “Grants, Partners and Outreach – Oh My.” These materials have also been shared for posting.
   c. Attempts to connect with other Outreach Committee members at conference to informally discuss goals for the upcoming year were unsuccessful.

III. Current plans
   a. Chair will contact membership to get input on projects for the upcoming year via email
   b. Working with the Rural and Small Libraries Committee is an ongoing, beneficial, partnership
   c. Outreach Best Practices will be revisited and shared with the ULA community via the outreach webpage: www.ula.org/outreach and ULN distribution list.
   d. No budget request will be submitted for the 2017-2018 year as there are no projects that will require funds are in the works.

Respectfully submitted,

Liesl Seborg, Chair

YSRT Youth Services
From Sherrie Mortensen
Our business meeting was well attended. We had 12 people, 6 of which were new attendees interested in serving on the YSRT board. We acknowledged Lindsay's service and talked about things we would like to see during the coming year so I could use that information to help prepare our requested budget. We have been working with past and present board members to resolve a lack of payment to our winter workshop presenter.
